

Living In New Mexico

Albuquerque is known as the heart of New Mexico.
If you love culture, cuisine and adventure, Albuquerque is the place to call home!

The area offers 310 days of sunshine each year.

Albuquerque's cost of living is cheaper than the U.S. average, and groceries and transportation costs are low compared to various US cities.

Our commutes are some of the easiest in the country! The average one-way commute is just 21.3 minutes.

Albuquerque is served by seven major commercial airlines: Alaska Airlines, American Airlines, Delta Airlines, JetBlue Airways, Southwest Airlines, Spirit Airlines, and United Airlines.

New Mexico is home to one of America's most cherished regional cuisines. With so many dining options throughout the city, you can't help but fall in love with the city's food scene.

Whether you're visiting one of our beautiful golf courses, taking a hot air balloon flight, mountain biking, hiking, horseback riding or shopping in Old Town, you'll find that Albuquerque offers a real breath of fresh air.
